

Absence Without Leave

COUNTY PETTY SESSIONS - Tuesday

Before Major Heathcote, and H. J. F. Swayne, Esq.

Charles Targett, an apprentice in the employment of Mr. H. P. Pollard, smith and farrier, of Whaddon, was summoned for absenting himself from work without the permission of his employer. Mr. Pollard said he did not wish to press charges, but as he had others in his employ, he felt he was doing his duty in bringing the matter before the court. The defendant was cautioned and dismissed on payment of costs.

Salisbury Times & South Wilts Gazette, 25 July 1868