

Re-Opening of the Wesleyan Chapel

The Wesleyan chapel at Alderbury, near this city, having been rebuilt, the same was opened for Divine worship on Thursday sen'night, when sermons were preached by the Rev. Messrs. Knowles and Walker; but, from the wetness of the day, which prevented many persons from attending, the collections after the services were but small.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal Monday 4 November 1839