

Another Parish Entertainment

A highly successful entertainment was given recently in the schoolroom to a large and most attentive audience. The piano, lent by the Rev. A. Kemple, was efficiently played by Miss Parham, Mr. Thatcher accompanying the glees in his usual able manner. Mr. Rebbeck convulsed his audience with his reading, and Mr. Pothecary was loudly re-demanded for his songs. Both Mrs. Thatcher and Mrs. Mullins sang most sweetly and tastefully, and the enthusiasm of the audience was raised to its highest pitch in joining in the choruses of Mr. Parham and Mr. Mayo's popular songs with banjo. The glees showed how carefully they had been prepared, and the debut of the young violinists created much interest and gave promise of excellent work in the future. A substantial balance rewards Mr. Thatcher for the great care and interest shown by him in the night school lately opened by the Vicar.

The following is the programme:- Piano solo "Greek Pirates March" Miss Parham. Song "Silver Bells of Memory" Mrs. Thatcher. Glee "Canadian Boat Song". Song with chorus "The King's Own" Mr. Mayo. Reading "The Figgoty Pudden" Mr. Rebbeck. Song "The Midshipmite" Mr. Pothecary. Violin duet, the Misses Trew. Song "Gone Away" Mrs. Mullins. Song with banjo accompaniment and chorus "The Old Folks at Home" Mr. Parham. Piano solo "The Millwheel" Miss Parham. Song "Twickenham Ferry" Miss Trew. Comic song "He' going to marry Mary Ann" Mr. Pothecary. Glee "The Blue Bells of Scotland". Song "Paddle your own Canoe" Mr. Parham. Piano duet "Punch and Judy" Mrs. Trew and Miss Harnecker. Recitation "Zekle's Courtin" Rev. C. O. Trew. Song "The English Bun" Mr. Mayo..

The Glee chorus comprised Mesdames White, Thatcher and Mullins, the Misses Lush, Stanley, Snook, Lawrence and Sturges and Messrs Pothecary, Thatcher, Mayo, Parham and Trew.
