Multiple Convictions

Trevisson Harold Richardo, whose address was given as Clanville, Castle Cary, was sentenced to six months' hard labour by Wincanton magistrates on Wednesday on a charge that, while a bailee, he converted a piano-accordion, the property of Messr Price Sons Ltd., Yeovil to his own use.

He was sentenced to a further three months' hard labour for leaving his wife and family chargeable to the common fund of the county.

A further charge of obtaining credit "by means of fraud other than false pretences" at Alvediston, Wilts, was taken into consideration at the defendant's request.....

.....With regard to the charge of obtaining credit by fraud at Alvediston, Detective Sergeant Daniel Waymouth said when the warrant was read that morning defendant replied "I admit the charge and wish it to be taken into consideration".
