

Game

Lord Arundell requests that all persons qualified by law to kill game will abstain from coursing or shooting on the Manors of Tisbury, Ansty, Bridzor, Hazeldon, Donhead St. Andrew, Donhead St. Mary and Semley, in the county of Wilts, and the Manors of Melbury Abbass, Compton Abbas and Fontmell, in the county of Dorset, on account of the scarcity of game.

All unqualified persons trespassing on these Manors will be prosecuted.

Salisbury & Winchester Journal, Monday, 2 September 1805