

TO be SOLD or LETT, and entered upon at Michaelmas next, A LEASEHOLD ESTATE, situate in the parish of Ansty, in the said county; a good Farm-house, and desirable warehouse for a woolstapler, or carry on a great trade, together with a barn, stable, cart-house, and other convenient buildings, three acres of orchard and garden, three acres of pasture, three acres of coppice, and two acres of water meadow, with a cottage house, all lying contiguous together.

Also, twenty acres of arable land in the several common fields of Ansty aforesaid, and 31 acres of deep strong arable inclosed, with a barn, stable, and cart-house.

The land for the next wheat crop to be entered upon immediately.

For particulars enquire of Mr. Hill, Shaftesbury; or for a view of the premises, of Mr. Foot, of Ansty aforesaid.

Salisbury & Winchester Gazette, 3 July 1780