

CORONERS INQUESTS

Atworth 1850-1899

1872

Inquests taken before Mr Coroner Sylvester. At Atworth, parish of Bradford-on-Avon, on Moses Shepherd, aged 66 years. The deceased slid down from a load of hay to the ground on his feet, and fell forcibly on his head, causing concussion of the brain, and death in two minutes. Verdict – Accidental Death. Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, 22 Aug 1872