

Accidents 1800-1899

1898

After leaving school on Monday evening, Leonard Case, youngest son of Mr. J. Case, was knocked down by a passing milk cart, the wheel passing over his head. The little fellow lies in a critical condition. Dr. Clay is in attendance. Much sympathy is expressed with the parents. Salisbury Times, Friday, 22 April 1898