Thomas BAXTER

Thomas Baxter was born in Rochford, Queensland around 1893, to parents John & Alice Baxter (nee Thommason). He was a 23 year old, Stockman from Charters Towers, Queensland when he enlisted on 2nd October, 1916 with the 8th Infantry Brigade, 31st Infantry Battalion, 11th Reinforcements of the Australian Army (A.I.F.). His service number was 4253 & his religion was Church of England. His next of kin was listed as his mother – Mrs Alice Poschalk, Kirk River, N.Q.R., Queensland. (Thomas' mother had remarried in 1901 to Augustus Poschelk as his father had died in 1897).

Pte Thomas Baxter embarked from Brisbane on HMAT Kyarra (A55) on 17th November, 1916 & disembarked at Plymouth, England on 30th January, 1917.

Reinforcements were only given basic training in Australia. Training was completed in training units in England. Some of these were located in the Salisbury Plain & surrounding areas in the county of Wiltshire.

Private Thomas Baxter was admitted sick to Fovant Hospital from 8th Training Battalion at Hurdcott, Wiltshire on 24th February, 1917.

Private Thomas Baxter died at 9.50 a.m. on 8th March, 1917 at Fovant Military Hospital, Wiltshire from pneumonia.

A death for Thomas Baxter, aged 23, was registered in the March quarter, 1917 in the district of Wilton, Wiltshire.

Private Thomas Baxter was buried on 10th March, 1917 in the churchyard of St. Edith's at Baverstock, Wiltshire and has a Commonwealth War Graves Headstone.

Private T. Baxter is commemorated in the Hall of Memory Commemorative Area at the Australian War Memorial, Canberra, Australia on Panel 118.

ROLL OF HONOUR

BAXTER.—In fond and loving memory of my dear son, Private Thomas Baxter, who died of pneumonia, March 8th, 1917, Military Hospital, England, Fovant).

Oh, how my heart does ache
To think of how you died;

To think I could not say good-bye
Before you closed your darling eyes.
Far and oft my thoughts do wander
To the grave so far away,
Where they laid our darling Thomas
Just three years ago to-day.

(Inserted by his loving mother, Mrs. A. Poschalk, and brother, James Baxter, Marion Street.

BAXTER.—In loving memory of our dear brother, Private Thomas Baxter, who died at Salisbury Plains, England, March 8th, 1917, aged 23 years.

We pictured his safe returning,
We longed for a clasp of his hand;
But God has postponed our meeting—
We shall meet in a better land.
He sleeps, not in his native land,
But under foreign skies,
Far from those who loved him dearly
In a soldier's grave he lies.

(Inserted by his sorrowing sisters and brothers, Mr. and Mrs. A. Crees (Charters Towers), Mr. and Mrs. J. Baxter (Emuford), Mr. R. Baxter (Hamford), Mr. and Mrs. H. Baxter (Cairns).

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at St. Edith's Churchyard, Baverstock. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

A letter from Base Records, dated 2nd July, 1921, to Mrs A. Poschalk, Marion St, Charters Towers, Qld., advises that a letter from the Defence Dept. concerning an inscription for the headstone of the late Pte T. Baxter had not been answered & non-receipt of a reply within 21 days would have to be accepted as indicating that no further action was to be taken. From letters in Pte Baxter's Service Record file it is believed that his mother – Mrs A. Poschalk died sometime between 17th May, 1921 & 16th August, 1921.

Pte T. Baxter does have a personal inscription on his headstone.
