

Crime Concerns in Bishopstone 1895

Disgraceful Behaviour

“One who Suffers” writes a strongly worded letter, complaining of the disgraceful behaviour which he says is going on nightly in the heart of the village of Bishopstone.

A lady is lying dangerously ill where fighting takes place, and the language is worse that would make a Billingsgate fish hawker blush. Our correspondent cannot understand why the authorities do not interfere. “One who Suffers” should have communicated with Supt. Collett, and we are sure that active officer would put matters right.

To save time, we have done so for him.
