At Chippenham Police Court.

At the Town Hall on Thursday, before Messrs G. P. Fuller and A. B. Roske, Ernest Maggs, a porter in the employ of the Great Western Railway Company, was sentenced to a month's imprisonment, with hard labour, for stealing a pair of puttee gaiters, a box of boot polish, and a tin of paste, the property of the company. It appeared that the prisoner had only been engaged a month as porter at Box station, and that on Monday Mr. Darke, of 16, Merton Road, Bishopstone, Bristol, commercial traveller, left his bag, with the articles mentioned, in the parcel office. The next morning when he received his bag he missed them, and they were subsequently found at the prisoner's lodgings.
