

AUCTION OF HOUSES AND LANDS

For Sale by Auction, by Mr Jones on Saturday the 24th July 1802 (and not on Saturday 7th, as before advertised), at three o'clock in the afternoon, at the Weymouth Arms Inn, in the town of Warminster:

The Fee of the following houses and lands, situate at Chicklade, Boyton and Corton in the county of Wilts.

1. A messuage or dwelling house, with the garden, stable, outhouses and appurtenances containing in the whole about three quarters of an acre, situate at Chicklade aforesaid, and now rented by the Rev John Thaine Frowd, under a lease which will expire at Lady Day 1804.
- 2 A paddock of pasture ground, containing about an acre, situate at Chicklade aforesaid, likewise rented by the Rev John Thaine Frowd, under a lease which will expire at Lady Day 1804.
- 3 A piece of ground, situate in Bockerly Field in Chicklade aforesaid, containing about twelve acres, eleven acres of which are now rented by the Rev John Still, under a lease determinable on his life, and one acre thereof is now rented by the said Rev J Still as tenant at will.

4 A messuage or tenement with the appurtenances, a close of pasture ground adjoining, containing one acre, and a piece of ground in Bockerly Field aforesaid containing 17 acres, now in the possession of Mr Spencer and others, and held by a lease determinable on the life of Charles Edmunds, now aged 46 years or thereabout.

5 All those closes of meadow or pasture ground, called the Crofts, containing by estimation 44 acres, situate at Chicklade Ridge, in Corton, in the parish of Boyton, with the common of pasture thereunto belonging, now in the occupation of Mr Richard Randall, as tenant at will.

6 The perpetual advowson or right of presentation to the church and rectory of Chicklade aforesaid, together with the glebe land thereunto belonging subject to the life of the present incumbent, aged about 45.

For further particulars apply to Mr Wickham, Frome, and for a view of the premises to the several tenants thereof.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal Monday 14 June 1802