

In The News

Corton

CORTON FRIENDLY SOCIETY

On Trinity Monday the members of this society held their 36th anniversary, at their club-room; but as their ancient church at Boyton in under renovation, they, by the kind permission of the Rev. Wm. Gray, proceeded to Upton Lovell Church, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion, where a most excellent sermon was delivered, the Rev. gentleman taking his excellent dinner. They afterwards proceeded, headed by the brass band from Sutton Veny, to pay their respects to the leading inhabitants of the neighbourhood, by whom they were most kindly received. The proceedings terminated with a dance. We understand that the funds of the society are in a flourishing condition.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal – Saturday 9 June, 1860)