

Lopes Arms Hotel, Westbury formerly the Lord Abingdon's Arms
one of the membership subscription venues

One Thousand Two Hundred and Eighty-Nine Shares!

TROWBRIDGE PROVIDENT SOCIETY,

Instituted for the purpose of raising a FUND, by the Weekly Subscription of SIX-PENCE to be paid by each Member, the Principal and Interest to be divided among the Survivors, at the Expiration of SEVEN YEARS.

The general approbation of the above Institution has met with, evidently appears from the number of Subscribers. One Thousand Two Hundred and Eighty-nine Shares have been already subscribed for, although the Society has not been established more than SIX MONTHS.

The Trustees Messrs. Clark, Selfe, Cockell, and Deane, have now standing in their names in the 3 per cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities NINE HUNDRED POUND STOCK, the property of the said Society.

Premium for one share to the 18th of June instant 15s. 3d. Any person may subscribe for two or more shares, and will receive a dividend accordingly.

→ The Books of the Society will be continued open for the admission of Members until the first day of January next.

Any further particulars may be known by applying to the Secretary, at his house in Trowbridge; Mr. Shrapnell, Hart and Cock, Inn, Trowbridge; Rev. Mr. Cooper, Bratton; Mr. Batchelor, Abingdon Arms Inn, Westbury; Mr. Mark Stump, Corsham; Mr. Bayly, Calne; Mr. Noyes, ironmonger, Chippenham; Mr. Spackman, grocer, Bradford; and Mr. Phillips, Three Swans Inn, Shaftesbury. THOMAS TIMBRELL, Secretary.

Bath Chronicle, 2 July 1789