

A typical pony and trap

1828

DEATH A poor woman named Summers, of Bremhill, on going a few mornings since to a field, with her husband's breakfast, enquired of a person whom she met, the time of day, and instantly fell a corpse. Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette Thursday 3 April 1828

1835

FATAL ACCIDENT On Monday afternoon last, as Mrs Whitworth of Bremhill was driving her pony carriage to Chippenham, accompanied by her daughter, the pony, on descending Derry Hill took fright, and, darting off at a rapid pace threw both Mrs Whitworth and her daughter into the road; the former of whom was so severely injured as to occasion her death within a few hours afterwards. Miss Whitworth escaped unhurt. Hampshire Advertiser Saturday 4 April 1835