

Brawl at Spirthill

Two brothers named Bryant fought a pitched battle on Monday last at Spurthill, near Bremhill, which occupied one hour and a quarter! And there were numbers of wretches who quietly stood by and witnessed the scene. At the close, the parties adjourned to a beer house, where several other battles were fought.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal Monday 14 September 1835