

Crime and Punishment

*East Tytherton,
Bremhill
1850-1899*

1866

Petty Session, Town Hall June 18

William Smith of Tytherton was summoned for alike offence (straying cattle) at Tytherton in the parish of Bremhill, on the 29th May last. Mr Ryall found a horse belonging to the defendant on the highway, and upon going to the defendant he admitted the horse was his property and fetched it home. Mr Bakewell, who appeared for the defendant, admitted the offence and the Bench inflicted a penalty of 1s and costs.

Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette Thursday 21 June 1866