

A Typical Raging Barn Fire

Fires in Foxham & Spirthill 1800-1849

1829

Last week the whole of the crop of barley, value £150, on the estate of Mr Vines of Spirthill, near Bremhill, Wilts, was consumed by fire, supposed to have been occasioned by incendiaries. Three men and a woman are in custody on suspicion of the offence. Hampshire Chronicle Monday 16 November 1829
