

Building & Land News Snippets 1800-1849

1802

Lot 11. A close meadow or pasture containing by estimation five acres (be the same more or less) situate in the parish of Bremhill, in the county of Wilts, within easy distances of the market towns of Chippenham and Calne, and now in the occupation of Andrew Dansey, as tenant thereof. The tenant will show the premises; and for further particulars apply to Mr Guy, attorney, Chippenham.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal Monday 19 July 1802

1807

To let or lease for seven years from Lady Day 1807. 1st a dwelling house, with suitable buildings, and about 31 acres of arable and 50 of pasture land, tythe free, in the occupation of Jacob Hammond, in the parish of Bremhill, about three miles from the town of Calne. Also a dwelling house and about 25 acres of pasture and 5 of arable land, in the occupation of W and J Hodges, in the parish of Bremhill, also tythe free. Also a dwelling house with suitable buildings, and about 49 acres of pasture and 55 of arable land, in the occupation of William Gingell, at Studley in the parish of Calne, free of great tythe.

NB: William Bull, the gamekeeper, at Underdown near Bremhill, will shew the above farms.

People desirous of taking the above farms are to deliver their proposals before the 25th day of January 1807, at Mr Atherton's Office in Calne, where plans may be seen and further particulars known.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal Monday 26 January 1807

1810

To be let by proposal. All that farm and lands, late in the occupation of Mr Vines, but now in hand, situate at Hanger in the parish of Bremhill in the county of Wilts, within a short distance of Calne and Chippenham; containing about 110 acres of arable, pasture and meadow land, free from all tythes, and may be entered on immediately. A lease for seven years will be granted.

William Bull, the gamekeeper at Bremhill will shew the estate. Sealed proposals may be addressed to the Marquis of Lansdown, or Mr Broad, No 3 New Burlington Street, London.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal Monday 5 February 1810

1815

To be let for 8 or 12 years from Lady Day 1815. All that farm situate at Hanger in the parish of Bremhill, in the county of Wilts, in the occupation of Mr Thomas Hale; containing 81½ acres of arable, meadow and pasture land, or thereabouts, with a dwelling house and necessary outbuildings, free from tithes. Further particulars may be had on application to Mr Broad, Bowood, near Calne; to whom sealed proposals may be sent till the 28th of February 1815.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal Monday 13 February 1815

1824

To be sold at auction by Mr Forrest On Wednesday 21 July at 12 o'clock, at Garraway's Coffee House, Change Alley, Cornhill, London. A freehold Estate situate in the parish of Bremhill, in the county of Wilts, about 4 miles from the market towns of Calne and Chippenham, and 11 from Devizes; consisting of a very improvable dairy farm called Bremhill Grove, containing 132 acres of land, chiefly meadow and pasture, tithe free, lying very compact, in convenient inclosures, with a farm house and outbuildings; now in the occupation of Mr Edward Rawlings, a yearly tenant. This estate is intersected by the Wilts and Berks Canal, affording a ready and cheap conveyance for the produce and manure to and from the capital markets of Calne, Devizes, Bath and Bristol. Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette Thursday 17 June 1824

1829

We understand that George Henry Gingell, esq, of Naish House has, with a degree of liberality worthy of imitation, lowered the rents of his tenants in the parish of Bremhill, Wilts, forty per cent in consequence of the present state of agricultural depression. Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette Thursday 22 October 1829