

Workhouse News 1800-1899

1851

The inmates of The Alderbury Union, in accordance with customs of the previous years, were plentifully regaled with a substantial dinner of roast beef and plum pudding on Thursday last. The necessary funds having been supplied by the voluntary contributions of the parish within the Union. Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 27 December 1851.