At Calne Town Hall 21st August 1854

Magdalene Hopkins v Robert Besent

Magdalene Hopkins swore & saith:-

I am a single woman in the Union House. I was confined in the Union House on the 11th June last with a male child. I charge Robert Besent with being the father of the child. I have had three other children also of the defendant. I have known him for about 7 years. One of the children is dead and the second died 3 years ago last ... About 10 or 11 weeks ago I went into the Union House and up to that time I received aid from the defendant.

The defendant declined to ask complainant any questions but admitted being the father of the child.

Ordered to pay 5 shillings a week for the first 6 weeks and 2 shillings and 6 pence a week afterwards and 12 shillings and 6 pence costs

6 weeks at 5/- is £1.10.0

3 weeks at 2/6 is 7s 6d.

Costs 12s 6d.

50 shillings £2.10.0 all paid.
