

Church at Castle Combe, Wilts

The Rector Resigning

The Rev. F. L. Appleford, Rector of Castle Combe for the past 33 years, is resigning from the living in March. Mr. Appleford is well known in the Chippenham area as a cricketer, having assisted the village club for many years until ill health caused his retirement from the game.

North Wilts Herald, Friday, 9 February 1940