

Obituaries

Castle Eaton

Reverend W. Grant Luckham

The death is announced at his residence, Castle Eaton, Fairford, of the Rev W Grant Luckman. Mr Luckman was a native of Bath, and lived in this city the greater part of his life, being engaged in the work of education. Having taken orders. He was for a short time curate of Charlcombe. From 1863 to 1892 he was Master and Chaplain of St John's Hospital, where he did good work, made the services bright and attractive, and was instrumental in restoring and beautifying the chapel. He resigned the office in the latter year on preferment to the rectory of Castle Eaton. Mr Luckman, we believe, has three sons in orders. One of whom is in India and another in the Argentine Republic.

Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette Thursday 21 July 1898