

To Be Let - Dominick Farm

To be lett, and entered upon immediately – Dominick Farm, in the parish of Chicklade, Wilts; consisting of a farm house, barns, stable, garden and orchard, with three acres and a half of pasture land adjoining the house; also one hundred and seventy acres (including about twenty acres of down) of arable land, in high cultivation, and in a ring fence.

The above is situate on the new line of turnpike road from London to Exeter, and about midway between Amesbury and Wincanton; and is well calculated for any person disposed to engage in the posting concern.

For further particulars apply (if by letter post-paid) to Messrs Guy and Michell, Chippenham.
