

Post Office Directory Extract 1849

Chicklade

Chicklade is a village in the parish of Chicklade, 16 miles west of Salisbury, and 1 mile north of Hindon, in the Hundred of Dunworth and diocese of Sarum.

The living is a rectory, value £230, in the gift of the Marquis of Bath; the incumbent is the Rev. John Cooke Faber, B.A.,

The church has been lately rebuilt in a plain style, without a chancel, and will seat 174 persons; it has a tower with 1 bell.

A Free School is about to be erected.

The population, in 1841, was 109.

The parish contains 1,039 acres, mostly arable land.

John Candy, Esq., is lord of the manor.

Letters are received through the Hindon office.

Gentry

Surname	Given Names	Title	Industry/Occupation	Place/Parish
Daw	Lydia	Mrs		Chicklade
Faber	John Cooke	Rev. B.A.	Incumbent	Rectory

Surname	Given Names	Title	Industry/Occupation	Place/Parish
Candy	John	Esq.	Farmer	Chicklade
Knight	James		Farmer	Chicklade
Moody	John		Parish Clerk	Chicklade
Wigmore	George		Farmer	Chicklade