

Auctions, Lets and Sales of Houses, Lands and Contents

1810

To be sold by auction, by J Jeanes, at Chicklade House, near Hindon, on the 17th day of September instant, and following day: - All the household goods and furniture and sundry other effects, the property of the Rev C Lipscomb, quitting these premises. NB More particulars next Journal.
Salisbury and Winchester Journal Monday 3 September 1810

1817

To be sold by private contract - the Fee Simple and Inheritance in possession of two inclosed pieces of excellent arable land called Little Field, adjoining Windmill and Chicklade Hill, in the parish of Chicklade, near the town of Hindon in the county of Wilts, and containing together 2½ acres more or less. The premises are conveniently situated with respect to market, and are now let to a respectable tenant for a term of years, of which four were unexpired at Michaelmas last. - For further particulars and to treat for the purchase, apply to Mr Nicholson, solicitor, Barford, near Salisbury. Letters must be post-paid. Salisbury and Winchester Journal Monday 13 January 1817