

Sale of Contents of Search Farm

Mr Joseph Harding will sell by auction, on Monday the 2nd day of July 1855, on the premises at Chicklade, - The whole of the household furniture, nag and harness horses and other effects, the property of Mr James Knight, who is about to leave the neighbourhood.

Consisting of mahogany four post and other bedsteads with furniture; seven very excellent feather beds, bolster, pillows and mattresses; flock beds, bed carpeting, dressing tables, swing and pier glasses, bedroom chairs, and ware; might commodes, mahogany and other chests of drawers. Easy chair. Stair carpeting and rods, mahogany tea and card tables, chairs of different sorts, clocks, alarum barometer, bureau and book case, sofas with horse hair seats, carpets, and rugs, bureau and bookcase, fine china, glasses and other ware; fire irons and fenders, kitchen tables and requisites, scullery utensils, &c. Grate with boiler attached, butter churn, salting leads, pickling tubs, trendles, safe, mash tub and horse, other tubs, four one hogshead casks, corn bins, working tool; two sets of breeching and other harness, hen coops, small one horse waggon, 18 corn sacks, chaff box and knife, hurdles, weighing machine with weights, neat gig and harness; an active, powerful, well-made horse, five years old equal to a heavy weight, steady and good in harness; one very neat cob horse, five years old, with good action about 14½ hands high; a clever, active, nag mare five years old, the property of a gentleman having no further use for her..

Sale to commence at twelve o'clock. Search Farm, 14th July 1855

Salisbury and Winchester Journal Saturday 23 June 1855