

Chicklade

Letters to the Editor

“Sarum XII MILES”

Sir, While walking along the “Ox Drove” from Chicklade towards Salisbury I found a milestone on the ancient track with the date 1750 and above the date Sarum XII miles. It is in quite good condition. I imagine that this track must have been used by the coaches or the road wagons before them.

C. R. Verner, Lower Lawn, Fonthill Gifford, Tisbury

(Western Gazette –19 August, 1949)

