

Death of Mr. Edward Lawes

A few days ago departed this life at Land's End Cottage, near Chippenham, after a long and painful illness, which he bore with great patience, and religious resignation, Mr. Edward Lawes, son of Mr. William Lawes of that place, schoolmaster, aged nineteen.

He wrote a most excellent hand, and his promising abilities and amiable disposition will be long remembered by a disconsolate father, and family, as well as by all those, who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday, 23 March 1818