Chittoe

CHITTOE, a tithing and consolidated chapelry, consisting of Chittoe and part of the adjoining parish of Bromham, 5 miles north of Devizes, in the Potterne and Cannings Hundred, the Union and division of Devizes and the diocese of Sarum, containing 1,097 acres of land, and a population of 162 in the tithing, and 245 in the portion in Bromham parish; it is distinct for the management of its own poor and other ordinary purposes, but for church government it is within the parish of Bishops Cannings, and subject to the vicar of that place. A district church, called St. Mary's, was erected in 1845; it is a neat structure, built with stone, in the early English style, and the sittings are all free; it has a nave, chancel, and 1 bell; the Rev. Meredith Brown is the minister. Wans House and a portion of Spy Park, also Sloperton, the residence of the late Thomas Moore, the poet, are within this district. Here is a National school for girls and boys. Here is a Primitive Methodist chapel.

Letters through Chippenham. The nearest money order office is at Devizes.
