

SALISBURY AND WINCHESTER JOURNAL,
AND GENERAL ADVERTISER FOR WILTS, HANTS, DORSET, SOMERSET, DEVON, AND BERKS.

1700-1799

1775 Stolen

From Chute, near Ludgershall Wilts, the 20th Nov. a large black puppy dog of the mongrel kind, between three and four months old, one part of his head white and the other black, with a mouse-coloured spot above his right eye, part of one of his ears white, the top of his tail cut off, both fore legs white, the hind legs of a mouse colour, and white feet, and answers to the name of Lion.

And whereas there is great reason to suspect that Thomas Rawlins of Collingbourne stole him, as both were missed at the same time; whoever will discover the person who stole him, or give notice where he is, so that he may be had again, shall receive Half a Guinea reward. William Rose.
Salisbury & Winchester Journal Monday December 11th 1775

Chute Lodge

To be sold by auction, as soon as the intended Auction for the Manor of Chute is over, the present Deputation of that Manor, from Mary Lady Arundell to John Freeman, Esq. It is thought that this will be a very valuable acquisition to the purchaser of the Manor of Chute, as a proper companion to the Bailiwick and Keeper of the Forest of Chute aforesaid.
Salisbury & Winchester Journal October 25th 1775

1779 To be Sold

For the remainder of a term of 99 years, determinable on a labouring man's life, aged about forty. The Mortgagee's Title for securing £60 and interest at five per cent, by assignment of a Leasehold Estate called Flinty House situate in the Forest of Chute near Clanville and about two miles from Weyhill and Appleshaw, Hants consisting of a small farmhouse, with a garden, orchard, barn, and backside, and about six acres of inclosed arable land, now lett to a substantial tenant.
Salisbury & Winchester Journal Monday November 8th 1779

1782 Committed to Gaol

On Thursday last John Freemantle was committed to the gaol here (Winchester), charged with breaking open, in company with one John Brown, the house of Wm. Smart, of Chute, in this county, and stealing divers sorts of apparel, 9s. in silver, &c.
Salisbury & Winchester Journal Monday September 21st 1782

1783 Robbery

Whereas the House of Thomas Cook, in the parish of Chute, in the county of Wilts, was broke open on Friday the 28th of February last, and several pieces of gauze, lawn, muslin, and ribbons, of all colours, taken away, and likewise several pair of men's stockings, women's printed linen and black silk handkerchiefs, and one man's neck handkerchief .

This is to desire, that if any person did, about that time, buy any thing of this kind, which they have reason to suspect were stolen, they will give notice thereof, by letter, to the printer of this paper, and if such information shall be sufficient to discover the offender, the person giving the information may depend on his name being kept a secret, if he desires it, and that a reward of Ten Guineas shall be paid him on the conviction of the offender, without his name being revealed, by me. Tho. Cook. N.B. Several pieces of ribbon, with the marks taken off, supposed to have been those that were stolen, were found, in searching a house in Upton.

Salisbury & Winchester Journal Monday March 27th 1783

1788 To be Sold by Auction by John Darling

On Thursday the 26th of June, 1788, and following day, the household goods and all the implements of husbandry of Mr Rose, of Chute Stanham, Wilts, near Andover, who is going to retire from business. The household goods and blacksmith's tools to be sold the first day, husbandry, the second. (part article only)
Salisbury & Winchester Journal Monday 23 June 1788

Biddesden Farm, near Weyhill

To be Lett, and entered upon immediately, all that capital Corn Farm situate at Biddesden, and in the parish of Chute, near Weyhill, having all necessary and convenient buildings in complete repair, and containing between six and seven hundred acres of inclosed land, lying together, and subdivided into proper inclosures. Every encouragement will be given to a good tenant, to whom the wheat crop on ground, about 33 acres of winter vetches, and ten acres of turnips, will be sold on very moderate terms. For viewing the farm and other particulars application to be made at Biddesden house or to Wm Everett Esq., Heytesbury; Mr Thring, Warminster, or Mr Ettwall, Andover.

Salisbury & Winchester Journal Monday 20 October 1788