The annual ANZAC Day Service was held on April 25 in the Commonwealth (ANZAC) War Grave Cemetery just across the Lane from St Mary's Church in Codford.

British Legion chaplain Adrian Pollard officiated at a service attended by representatives of the Commonwealth War Grave Commission, The Royal British Legion and the Defence Forces of New Zealand and Australia, all of whom laid wreaths on the Cross of Sacrifice.

More than 70 people attended the early morning service which for the first time featured on the websites of the New Zealand High Commission and the Australian Embassy.

After the service, 53 people returned to the Village Hall for a breakfast provided by Evelyn Read and her team of helpers.
