Codford St. Mary and St. Peter

CODFORD ST MARY, a village on the banks of the Wiley, and on the road from Salisbury to Frome, in the Hundred of Heytesbury and Union of Warminster, distant 7 ½ miles south-east from Warminster, 15 north-west from Salisbury and 3 ½ from Heytesbury. The living is a rectory, in the archdeaconry and diocese of Salisbury, value £306, and in the patronage of St. John's College, Oxford; the Rev. Geo. Mountjoy Webster, D.D., is the present incumbent. The Church is in the perpendicular style of architecture. On the summit of Codford Hill, in this parish, is Ogbury Camp, an earthwork forming a complete circle, and surrounded by a vallum and fosse constructed with great regularity. Near it is the supposed site of a large British settlement, covering several acres of ground. There is a place to worship for Independents.

The manor belongs to Harry Biggs, Esq., of Stockton House.

Population in 1841, 338; area in acres, 1445.

CODFORD ST PETER is a parish adjoining the above, and situated in the same Hundred and Union. The living is a rectory, in the archdeaconry and diocese of Salisbury, value £380, and in the patronage of Pembroke College, Oxford. The Rev. Henry Wightwick, M.A., is the present incumbent.

A National school-house has been erected at the expense of Wadham Locke, Esq., of Ashton House, in this parish.

Population, in 1841, including the hamlet of Ashton, 394; acreage, 1,611.
