WARMINSTER AND SOUTH WILTS FARMERS' CLUB

The second anniversary of this Institution was held on Friday last, and was very numerously attended. The stock exhibited was remarkably fine, particularly of sheep, and was even superior to that of last year.

PREMIUMS AWARDED

Daniel Kill, servant to Mr T. S. Whiting, Codford, a bounty of £1

(Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, Thursday 2nd September, 1841)

SOUTH WILTS & WARMINSTER FARMERS' CLUB

(Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, Thursday 11th August, 1842 & Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday 8th August, 1842)

WARMINSTER AND SOUTH WILTS FARMERS' CLUB

The fourth anniversary of this Institution was held on Friday last. The stock exhibited was remarkably fine, but there was not so much competition for the premiums, as could have been desired.....

Premiums Awarded to Labourers:

To Thos. Martin of Rolleston, for breeding and rearing lambs £2 10

To Wm. Blake of Warminster, for ditto £2 0

To Daniel Kill of Codford, for ditto £1 10

.....

For length of service with the same master, or with father and son in succession:

To Thomas Kill of Codford, for having served 47 years on the same farm £1 10

.....

To William Alexander of Codford for general good character and conduct £1 0

(Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, Thursday 10th August, 1843)

WILTS AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY

The annual meeting of this Society was held yesterday; and, as far as the shew of cattle concerned, may be considered as one of the nest, in point of quality, that has taken place for many years. Indeed, so generally good was the whole of the stock, that we are unable to make any distinction, beyond what will be found in the judges' report.....

(Awards to Servants)

Cloaks to Female servants.-

Sarah Wheeler, servant to Mr J. H. Ingram of Codford St. Peter, for a period of 15 years;

(Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, Thursday 26th July, 1849)
