

William Annetts and Family Immigrant Passengers To Australia

The persons in the table below arrived in Botany Bay, Australia aboard the Herefordshire on 27 May 1857 having set sail on 24th February

Surname	Given Names	Age	Occupation/Status	Place of Birth	Notes	Could Read or Write
Annetts	William	25	Agricultural labourer	Wiltshire	Wesleyan	neither
Annetts	Jane	20	General servant	Wiltshire	Wesleyan	both
Annetts	Mary Jane	2	Daughter	Wiltshire	Wesleyan	neither
Annetts	Charles	Infant	Son	Wiltshire	Wesleyan	neither
Anetts	Richard	21	Farm labourer	Wiltshire	CofE	both
Anetts	Thomas	18	Farm labourer	Wiltshire	CofE	reads

OPC Note:

William Annetts was baptised in Collingbourne Ducis on 5th November 1831 son of Stephen and Hannah Annetts.

The 1841 census shows the Annets family living in Cadley, Collingbourne Ducis:-
Stephen Annets, 30, Ag lab; Hannah Annets, 30; Charles Annets, 12; William Annets, 9; John Annets, 7; Richard Annets, 5; Thomas Annets, 3; George Annets; 1

The 1851 Census records the family still in Collingbourne Ducis:-
Stephen Annetts, 40, Ag Lab; Hannah Annetts, 41; Charles S. Annetts, 20, Ag Lab; William, Annetts, 18, Ag Lab; Richard Annetts, 14, Ag Lab; George Annetts, 12, Ag Lab; James Annetts, 10, Scholar; Henry Annetts, 8, Scholar; Martha Annetts, 4, Scholar; Joseph Annetts, 2

All were born in Collingbourne Ducis apart from Hannah and Charles who were born in Collingbourne Kingston.

William Annetts married Jane Mary Smith 1855 in Collingbourne

©Wiltshire OPC Project/2016/Maureen Withey

Charles Annetts was born aboard the ship "Herefordshire" on its voyage to Australia

Richard and Thomas Annetts were brothers of William Annetts

William Annetts died 1908 in Adelong, New South Wales, Australia. He was a gold miner.