

AUCTION SALE

Sale of Stock Mr. James Smith

To be sold by auction, by T Rawlins, at the Crown Inn, Ludgershall, on Wednesday the 13th of August, 1817.

The HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, Plough, Harrows, Roller, Dairy Utensils, and other effects, of Mr. James Smith, Collingbourne Lodge, (removed for convenience of sale to the above Inn): comprising four-post and stump bedsteads; feather beds; blankets, quilts and counterpanes; oak chest of drawers, night stool, oak burau, dining, claw and dressing tables; black stained and wicker bottom chairs; japanned trays; plated and other candlesticks; neat corner cupboard; excellent eight-day clock, in oak case, with circular head; capital fowling piece by Turner; fenders and fire irons; china, glass and crockery kitchen requisites and culinary articles; 1 cwt. lath nails; iron-bound 40 gallon, half-hogshead, and other casks; mash tub, kiewers, good grinding stone and frame, water tub and barrow, dairy utensils, quantity of bee hives and stools, a plough, good harrows and roller, water and pig troughs, and various other articles.

Sale to begin at one o'clock.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 11 August 1817