

SOUTH WILTSHIRE
CORONER'S INQUESTS
Compton Chamberlayne

Newspaper Reports

Emily Moxham 1st February, 1871

FOUND DROWNED – On Wednesday an inquest was held on the body of Emily Moxham, of Compton Chamberlayne, which was found floating in a watercourse. The evidence went to show that the poor woman had been drinking, and after leaving the house of a neighbor late at night had probably mistaken her road, and fallen into the water.

Verdict accordingly.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal - 4 February, 1871)