

Compton Chamberlayne

In The News

In Australia

AUSTRALIAN FLAG - DEDICATION

London, Tues, - An Australian flag, to be dedicated on Australia Day, will be hoisted on the site of the map of Australia which Australian troops cut in The Downs near Compton Chamberlayne, near Salisbury, during the war. The flag was given by the Australian Government through its Resident Minister in London, Mr E. J. Harrison and will be dedicated in the Parish Church at Compton Chamberlayne at a service on Australia Day.

(The Canberra Times (ACT) Wednesday 24th January, 1951)