

CORONERS INQUESTS

Inquest on George Harding

Inquests before R. M. Wilson, Esq.

On the 17th, at Coombe Bissett, on the body of George Harding, who committed suicide by hanging. Evidence was given showing that the deceased was strange and incoherent in his manner, and a verdict of insanity was returned.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Saturday, 26 June 1858