Chapmanslade

Chapmanslade, nearly 3 miles south-west, is partly in this parish and partly in Corsley. The church of SS. Philip and James, a chapel of ease to Holy Trinity parish church, is a small stone building, erected by a subscription in 1867, and consists of chancel, nave, south porch and a small western belfry containing 2 bells: the chancel and nave are paved with encaustic tiles: the reredos is of Caen stone and bears a representation of the four Evangelists: there is a stone pulpit: the seats, which are of oak and all open, will seat 130 persons. Here is a Congregational and a Baptist chapel.

POST OFFICE, Chapmanslade. - Francis Selman, receiver. Letters arrive from Westbury at 8.30 a. m.; dispatched at 6 p.m.; & 10.30 a.m. on Sundays. Westbury is the nearest telegraph office, Westbury Leigh the nearest money order office. Postal orders are issued here, but not paid.

SCHOOLS:-
