

Wedding Celebrations Cricklade

Noel Wilkins and Joan Orchard Baker

Wedding bells rang at Oaksey, near Malmesbury, yesterday after the wedding at the Parish Church of Miss Joan Orchard Baker, youngest daughter of Mr Fred J Baker and the late Mrs Baker, of Moor Farm, Oaksey, to Mr Noel Wilkins, of Headlands Farm, Cricklade, a son of the late Mr H C Wilkins and Mrs Wilkins of Purton.

The service was conducted by the rector, the Rev T J V Williams, assisted by Dr Richards, of Cricklade.

Given away by her father, the bride, who wore a silver fox fur, the gift of the bridegroom, was attired in a light blue two-piece suit with hat to match, and carried a Victorian posy of forget-me-nots and carnations.

Mr T Ponting, a friend of the bridegroom, was best man.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home, and later the couple, who are making their future home at Headlands Farm, left for their honeymoon in London.
