

ANTELOPE INN

Situate in the centre of the Market Place, Devizes, being the remaining portion of Houses of that old, long-established, and highly respectable Firm the DEVIZES BREWERY.

CROCKETT & SON are requested to arrange for SALE by AUCTION on the Premises, on TUESDAY 19th May, 1846, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, subject to conditions then to be produced, all that capital now in the occupation of Mr Ransome; most eligibly situated, and always doing a good business as a Brewers House, with the prospect of an immense increase as a free house, containing a bar and parlour in front, tap and kitchen to rear, good cellars and arched vaults under the Market Place, 2 good chambers in front and 2 in rear, with three attics, small yard and stable to accommodate 14 horses, hay loft and corn rooms over.

FREEHOLD INN

A HOUSE adjoining, in the occupation of Mr Huband, with Shop fronting the Market Place, and Parlour in rear, 2 rooms on the floor above and two attics with cellar under the whole, and a warehouse in the Antelope Yard with loft over.

The above is at present let at £64 per annum. The whole is freehold, and the premises are most substantially and recently built.

For further particulars apply to the AUCTIONEERS, DEVIZES

Devizes & Wiltshire Gazette 7th May 1846