

Devizes Castle To Be Sold

Devizes Castle, which was originally built by Roger, Bishop of Salisbury, in the reign of Henry I, and was reputed to be the most formidable fortress in England, is to be sold shortly. The remains of the ancient castle have been carefully preserved and restored where practicable, and the present residence is a good modern example of an ancient feudal castle.

Bath Chronicle and Western Gazette 3 June 1886