

Roundway House, New Park, Devizes, home of the Sutton Family

Salisbury , Aug 27.        The Right Hon. William Pitt, much amended in health, is at present on his annual tour to visit his mother, the venerable Lady Chatham, at Burton Pynsent. He arrived on Tuesday at New Park, Devizes, the seat of Lieutenant Colonel Sutton, of the Wilts Yeomanry, and slept there that night; on his way he visited Devizes, the inhabitants of which vied with each other in bellowing on him testimonies of their esteem: the bells were rung, and the associated Householders received him under arms.

Derby Mercury, 6 September 1798

William Pitt, the Younger, 1759-1806

