

Coroners Inquest Report

Inquest Report on William Frank Curtis

An Inquest was held on Tuesday by Mr. Coroner Sylvester, on the body of a little child, aged three months, named William Frank Curtis, the infant son of William Curtis, who died on the preceding day. After hearing the evidence the jury returned a verdict of "Death from Natural Causes".

Wiltshire Times and Trowbridge Advertiser, Saturday, 10 June 1899