CORONER'S INQUESTS
(Dinton extracts)

Henry COOPER 11th July, 1868

Death of a travelling tinman

An inquest was held by R M Wilson, Esq., at Dinton, on Tuesday last, on the body of Henry Cooper, a travelling tinman, aged 40 years.

Mr Henry Cooper had been out of health for the last nine months, and at times threw up large quantities of blood. On Friday, at Tisbury, he became worse, and on Saturday, Dr Zinzan, surgeon at Tisbury, saw him, and directed him to be taken to the Salisbury Infirmary, but being unable to obtain a recommendation he could not go. On Sunday he reached Dinton, when he died in great pain at about 9 o'clock in the evening.

Verdict — "Visitation of God from disease of the lungs."
