

Crime and Punishment

Dinton

DARING ROBBERY

The house of Wm. And John Weeks, labourers, in the parish of Dinton, was robbed in the day-time on Saturday the 6th inst. during their absence whilst at work in the fields, of a great variety of articles, (see adv.) and it is sincerely hoped that this mode of publishing the robbery will lead to a discovery of the offenders.

Advertisement:

DARING ROBBERY.
THE following Articles of WEARING AP-PAREL, &c. were on Saturday the 6th instant, STOLEN out of the Dwelling-house of Wm. and John Weeks, labourers, at Dinton, in the county of Wilts, during the absence of the owners, who were at work in the fields:—2 new pair shoes; 1 pair yellow plush breeches, with gilt buttons; 1 red striped waistcoat; 2 green striped ditto; 1 yellow neck handkerchief; 1 twilled ditto; 1 yellow silk ditto; 2 pocket ditto (1 with green stripes, 1 red); 1 pair corduroy breeches, nearly new; 1 ditto, light plush; 1 pair long black gaiters, new; 2 pair plain speckled stockings; 5 razors, 3 marked with W in the handles; 5 sheaths, 3 marked with Wm. Weeks; 1 small square looking-glass; 2 yellow watch chains; 1 yellow jacket, sleeves the same colour; 16s. in silver; 3 yellow purses; 1 hat, nearly new.—Whoever will give such information to the said Wm. and John Weeks, or to the Churchwarden of the parish of Dinton, as will lead to the discovery and conviction of the offender or offenders, shall be rewarded for their trouble.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday 15th September, 1817)