

Marriage of Mr. John Bulpitt to Miss Hannah Chinnock

Marriage Festivities

This picturesque village was, on the 11th inst., the scene of excitement and gaiety on the occasion of the marriage of Mr. John Bulpitt, of London, to Miss Hannah Chinnock, youngest daughter of Mr. S. Chinnock.

The bride wore a magnificent white satin dress with veil and wreath of orange blossoms. The dresses of the six bridesmaids were chaste and elegant.

Mr. James Bulpitt acted as "best man" to his brother.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. H. Cholmeley, the choir rendering their musical assistance. The Rev. E. Heathcote presided at the harmonium.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the wedding party returned to Mr. Chinnock's house, where they sat down to a sumptuous breakfast, which had been provided by Mr. H. Ward, of Milford Street, Salisbury.

In the evening, a bountiful supper was provided at the French Horn at the expense of Mr. Chinnock for the men in his employ.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Saturday, 20 November 1869