

Dinton

ODDFELLOW'S CONCERT

An attractive and highly successful Concert was given in the Schoolroom on Thursday, the 23rd ult. The proceeds were given to the Incidental Fund of the "Loyal Duke of Edinburgh" Lodge of Oddfellows recently opened in this village at the Wyndham Arms Hotel.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal – Saturday 2 May, 1868)

ODDFELLOWS' DEMONSTRATION ON CORONATION DAY

We understand that Mr Charles Penruddocke has kindly granted the use of Compton Park for the purpose of holding an Oddfellows' demonstration on a very grand scale to take place on Coronation Day. This being the first time that the park has been thrown open to the public, a considerable number of visitors will no doubt be attracted to this pleasant spot.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal – Saturday 11 February, 1871)
