

CORONERS INQUESTS

Ludwell, Donhead St. Mary 1700-1899

1831

Mr. Whitmarsh held an inquisition on Monday inst, at Ludwell, on the body of Samuel Sharp. It appeared that on the preceding Saturday morning, as the deceased was dressing himself, he suddenly fell down and expired in the presence of his wife. Verdict – “Visitation of God.” Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, 20 January 1831
